

Invitation to participate in the 9th European Soloist Competition for Brass and Percussion instruments

To be held in
Malmö, Sweden, 1 – 3 May 2023

Young soloists who originate from or who are resident in European Brass Band Association member countries are invited to compete in the 9th European Soloist Competition for Brass and Percussion Instruments 1 – 3 May 2023 in Malmö, Sweden.

Organisation

The event will be a part of the 44th European Brass Band Championships in association with World of Brass, which will be held in Malmö in May 2023. The European Brass Band Association (EBBA) organises the competition in cooperation with Brassmusik Skåne in Sweden, the local organisers of the EBBC.

EBBA will be responsible for the planning and running of the competition and will set up the Juries. The Juries will consist of musicians of prominent standing, and they will adjudicate under the set rules of the competition.

Conditions of the competition

1. The 9th European Soloist Competition for brass and percussion instruments 2023 is open for:

BNP PARIBAS FORTIS Bank, Kouter 6, 9000 Gent, Belgium

quoting "ESC Malmö 2023", at the latest by the 31 January 2023.

The name of the applicant must be given in full even if he/she does not pay the registration fee in person.

8. Participant may bring their own piano accompanist, at their own expense, but there are also very experienced official professional pianists available for the 2nd round (if they are requested on the entry form).
9. Participants who are late by their own fault may be excluded from participation in the competition.
10. Travelling, board and lodging expenses for candidates and their personal piano accompanists are the responsibility of the candidates themselves. Details of accommodation are available via the event website:
<https://www.brassmusikskane.se/information-hotels-in-malmo/>
11. The organiser of the competition is authorised to record acoustically and visually all concerts or events within the period of the competition and to use these recordings to publicise the competition. The organiser particularly reserves the right to authorise Radio and TV stations to broadcast, record and transmit all events of the competition and to permit the production and sale of CD's, DVD's and other sound carriers from performances of the competition. No claims for reimbursement for the candidates will be considered. In submitting his/her application, the candidate is deemed to have agreed to this.

Sequence of the events

1st round

12. Candidates will submit a short (maximum 10 minutes duration) video of themselves performing a piece or pieces of their own choosing. It is preferable that performances are in a live environment such as a recital or concert. The videos will be assessed by a jury. The jury will select the best candidates, up to a maximum of 20, to participate in the final stages of the competition. All candidates will then be advised whether they have been selected for the final stages of the competition.

2nd round and Final

13. Sunday 30 April - Arrival and rehearsal

Candidates will have the opportunity to rehearse with a piano accompanist. The draw for the order of play for the 2nd round will also be made, in the presence of all competitors.

Monday 1 May - 2nd Round

Each candidate will perform a piece or pieces of their own choice, in a program to last no longer than 10 minutes playing time. Programs may not include a piece performed in the first round (sent by video). Pieces may be solo or accompanied by piano. This round is open to the public.

Piano parts to be played by the official accompanists should be submitted at least eight weeks prior to the competition, the deadline being 12 March. These can be sent to the General Secretary generalsecretary@ebba.eu.com

The jury will choose the best 3 candidates from the 2nd round for the final. At the announcement of the results at the end of this round, a draw will decide on the order of performance for the Final.

Tuesday 2 May – Rehearsal for Final

The final 3 candidates will have an opportunity to rehearse their final piece with brass band.

Wednesday 3 May - Final

The three candidates will perform the set piece for their instrument at the Gala Concert of the Final of the European Soloist Competition. Each candidate will be accompanied by a leading Championship section brass band from Denmark. The Final will form the first half of the Wednesday evening concert.

Jury

14. The adjudication is by a jury consisting of distinguished musicians and teachers from Europe. The names of the members in the jury will be announced prior to the commencement of the competition.
15. The Jury will make its decisions according to the regulations. No appeal will be considered against the decision of the jury.
